

Celebrating Our 25th Year

condolife

GREATER TORONTO'S COMPLETE CONDO GUIDE

APRIL 2010

It's All Coming Together... at Union Square at Gramercy Park

BUY NEW
BUY NOW

PLUS

Amenity Charts
for 300+ Condos

condolifemag.com

SPOTLIGHT:
NKBA Gala

INTERIORS:
CONDO TRENDS: Colours and stripes are the hype of the season

Bright coloured stripes are fun and refreshing, and are appearing everywhere from the catwalks of Milan to interior products. Beautifully crafted rugs designed by a Canadian artist, Oliver Yaphe, displays a gorgeous collection of rugs inspired by her local environments. Rugs are a great way to frame spaces and provide definition to rooms and circulation areas.

For more information visit oliveryaphe.com

Paul smith, a renowned fashion designer famous for his colourful stripes, is now taking on the interior design world and applying his signature vibrant striped patterns on just about everything from fine china to textiles.

For more information visit paulsmith.co.uk

When it comes to textiles, felt is the newest contender on the block offering a wide range of applications and gorgeous colours. You will be sure to find just about everything for the home made from felt, from baskets, pillows to wine racks.

Image courtesy Dvira Ovadia

