A SOFT PINK RUFFLED QUILT IS THE BIG-GIRL BLANKIE YOUR DAUGHTER NEEDS. YOUTHFUL AND GIRLIE, SOFT AND SUBDUED, THE PINKS PICKED HERE WILL COMPLEMENT YOUR LITTLE ONE'S MATURING PALETTE, EVEN WHEN THAT PROMISE TO STAY TRUE TO PINK FADES TO A LOVE OF GREYS.

TOP TO BOTTOM Rachel Ashwell Simply Shabby Chic twin cotton Ruffle in Pink, $90, Target, target.ca; twin Southern Belle in Pink, $139, The Land of Nod, landofnod.com; twin cotton Brigitte Ruffle, $182, Pottery Barn Kids, potterybarnkids.com; Bella Notte twin cotton Chesapeake in Petal, $534, Au Lit Fine Linens, aulitfinelinens.com.

SLEEPING BEAUTY

Or perhaps The Princess and the Pea is a better reference here. After all, the fairy tale taught us that more bedding is always better. Here, layers upon layers of bed linens in different patterns and textures impart a luxe look befitting even the most particular of princesses (and could provide cushioning from even the peskiest of peas).

ART SCHOOL

You may not have the budget for a beautiful one-of-a-kind painting, but that doesn't exclude you from the world of art altogether.

The gorgeous painting by Toronto artist Madeleine Lamont for our high look (shown at right) inspired us to search through old books and vintage online prints (like Vintage Printable, vintageprintable.com) for our low version (shown below).
