“I wanted to limit the colours and materials in the open space; it helps achieve a Zen-like feel.”

STEPHANIE LEES, DESIGNER

In the living room, colour warms up and enlivens the neutral scheme, as evidenced by the punch of red from the one-of-a-kind antique sign the homeowner bought in China, which hangs over a console she brought back from Calgary.

Red BOX, Green Tea Design; Ethiopian TRAY, Zulu POT, Snob.

OPPOSITE, CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT

The raspberry pink upholstered bed (a request from the homeowner) is an island of colour in the smoky grey master bedroom; the homeowner's art glass collection displayed on a floating shelf brings a jolt of colour to the subdued master bedroom;

the den's daybed was re-covered in grey linen – a perfect backdrop for toss cushions in a mix of textiles, including Kuba cloth the owner purchased when she lived in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

Slipcover SEWING, Princess Perfect.
