SNOB

South African native Denise Zidel fills her showroom with furniture and home decor imported directly from her native continent. But don't expect witch doctor masks or carved giraffes—Snob is about luxury design. The furniture is modern with an African twist. For example, a console table with a zebra skin top and stainless steel legs ($5,995). Zidel also stocks museum-grade artifacts (perhaps a collar originally worn by an unmarried Masai woman in Kenya, $225).
